

Example: Study trip to Paris for 6 days

Day 1 Arrival, Ile de la cité

Arrival at Paris airport or railway station, around noon.

Welcome by our guide. The luggage will be transported to the accommodation, while we take the Metro to down town Paris.

Lunch in a restaurant Typ „Flunch“ near by the Centre Georges Pompidou which we will visit also this week.

Walk through the Ile de la Cité. We pass in front of the Conciergerie, first royal palast of the Capetian dynasty, later the prison of Marie Antoinette. Going on to the Gothic Sainte Chapelle and passing by the Palais de Justice. And there it is, Nôtre Dame de Paris!

Free visit of the cathedral, with its statues, rosettes and gargoyles. By Metro and RER we join our accommodation and relate the rooms.

Dinner.

For your information: We choose for our groups small and friendly student accommodations on the outskirts of Paris. Thus, students can rest at night and are for these days in a safe and quiet environment. Depending on the day's program and season a lunch pack is provided, or we have lunch in a restaurant.

Day 2 Grevin, Montmartre

After breakfast we'll we have a short walk to the RER railway station, were we take the train to down town Paris

Today we visit the Musée Grévin the wax museum with its some 450 characters arranged in scenes from the history of France and modern life. Pick Nick on the stairs of Opera Garnier.

Afternoon walk through the most famous district of Paris: Montmartre!

From Place Blanche, Moulin Rouge, over the Place des Abbesses, up by the stairs to Place du Tertre with its many artists and their easels. We continue our walk to Sacré Cœur. Free visit of the basilica

We take the Metro and train back to our accommodation.

Dinner.

A multilingual guide/coordinator of our team will accompany your group during the entire stay. Our companion takes over the coordination and logistics of your stay, assuring the smooth running of it.

Day 3 Louvre, Tuileries

As yesterday we take the train after breakfast. Today we go to the Louvre.

Originally built as a fortress in the late 12th century under Philip II, today one of the world's largest museums and a historic monument. Guided visit.

Pick Nick in the Tuileries garden or under the carousel du Louvre. Thereafter walk through the most beautiful district of Paris.

From the Place de La Concorde, the Madeleine and Elysée Palace we arrive at the most famous and most beautiful avenue of Paris, Champs Elysées at whose end we see the Arc de Triomphe with the eternal flame of the unknown soldier.

By RER back to the accommodation, Dinner.

Day 4 Versailles with gardens

After the breakfast a coach is waiting for us.

He will drive us to Versailles. In the morning guided visit of the Castle

Pick Nick in the Gardens of Versailles, we will visit them in the afternoon.

We walk through the magnificent, blossoming park with fountains and statues till Trianon, and enjoy the art of the gardener.

Return to accommodation and dinner.

Important Note:

Due to the increasing number of visitors and the crowds in various museums and attractions, it can happen despite our efforts, that the travel program has to be rescheduled at the time of reservation (schedule or theme of the tour). Also the choice of another attraction may be necessary.

In case of changes due to reservations or lack of availability, we can not be held responsible. This also applies to last minute cancellations (strikes, delayed shipment). Thank you for your understanding!

Day 5 Pompidou & science

Today again we take the RER to down town Paris. Guided visit of modern art in the Centre Pompidou.

Pick Nick at the Stravinsky-Fountain.

By Metro we go to Porte de la Villette. There is the Cité des Sciences et de l'Industrie, the biggest science museum in Europe.

Depending the age of the students, we visit the city of children (up to 12), or the science

Museum.

Other possibilities:

The Quai Branley Museum, the Eiffel tower, the Arab World Institute and many others more.

Back to the accommodation and Dinner. Then we have to prepare our luggage for departure.

Day 6 Departure

After breakfast the coach brings us to the airport or railway station.

You'll get a lunchpack for the journey.

Our Guide will bring you to the check in or the platform.

End of our guidance. Have a good trip back home!

Example of price for 6 days 2014: at least 25 students + 3 teachers (including 2 free of charge) from 720 € per person.

This price includes:

Public transport (metro and RER) from and to accommodation and other tourist destinations, luggage transport to accommodation on arrival, coach for the day of Versailles and transfer to the airport or TGV train station on departure. Sightseeing, entrance fees, guides and activities according to program, as well as all full boarding from lunch on day of arrival until lunch pack on departure. Multilingual guide/coordinator during the entire stay.

Not included: the journey to Paris and back to your country